The Honorable Carl Levin,
Chairman
U.S. Senate Armed Services Committee
Fax: 202-228-0036

Dear Senator Levin:

In this time of American military power and our country's role in the world, it is important to recognize that those who emerge from among the ranks of our armed forces often have the character, experience and insights necessary to keep this nation on a course that is both tried and true, worthy of a nation whose exceptionalism serves as a beacon of hope for all overseas who yearn for a better world based on democracy, peace and prosperity.

The Polish American Congress believes that Chuck Hagel, President Obama's choice for Secretary of Defense, is deservedly one of those people.

The defense and security challenges that our great nation faces today in the international arena are many and highly complex. Although one may not always agree with Senator Hagel's perspectives on a number of related issues, he should be applauded for asking tough questions and demanding from those with whom he will work answers that are real, credible and make sense to our fellow citizen-voters of the United States.

Sincerely yours,

Frank J. Spula,
President
